THIS DOCUMENT CONTAINS INFORMATION AFFECTING THE NATIONAL DEFENSE OF THE UNITED STATES WITHIN THE MEANING OF THE ESPIONAGE ACT, U.S.C. 51, AND 51-A. IT IS LOANED TO YOU BY THE NATIONAL ARCHIVES AND IS NOT TO BE REPRODUCED IN ANY MANNER TO AN UNAUTHORIZED PERSON OR TO BE USED IN ANY MANNER THAT MAY BE PREJUDICIAL TO THE NATIONAL DEFENSE OF THE UNITED STATES. IT MAY NOT BE REPRODUCED IN WHOLE OR IN PART BY OTHER THAN THE STATE, WAR, OR NAVY DEPARTMENT WITHOUT THE PERMISSION OF THE DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE.

1. OZNA is organized as follows in Yugoslavia:

- (a) Central OZNA for Yugoslavia,
- (b) OZNA headquarters in each State,
- (c) OZNA district headquarters,
- (d) OZNA town headquarters, with each town divided into districts.
- (e) An OZNA man in every Government office, and in each factory.

- 2. I do not know the real name of the Chief of all OZNA. Col Milic is prominent in the Central OZNA, and Gen Obradovic is chief of OZNA for Croatia, with headquarters in Zagreb. All OZNA men hold ranks in the Army.
- 3. Supplementing OZNA in security work is the Narodna Odbrana, or militia. These troops are always in uniform and act as border and security troops.
- 4. Political commissars and party units in the Army help keep the military in line.
- 5. Yugoslavs believe they have destroyed all of the US intelligence network in Yugoslavia. With the arrest of Professor of Law Polan in Slovenia, the Yugoslavs claim to have broken up a British intelligence network for the first time. The Yugoslav Foreign Office has considerable respect for British intelligence and the American FBI.
- 6. Arms dropped to some Serbian units in the mountains have been intercepted recently.
